LOCAL NEWS.

C. M. Wilds, Esq., returned yesterday morning from his business trip to Michigan.

Harry P. Langworthy has gone to Chicago and intends to remain there for some time.

W. F., not Chas. Tulley, is the proprietor of the new market in the Smith & Sheldon block.

Miss Hattie Parker went, last week, to Bread Loaf Inn, and will remain through the summer.

The subject of the discourse at the Baptist church next Sabbath will be "The Hidden Life."

Miss Annie Abbey, who had visited friends in Boston and Providence for several months, returned home on Thursday last.

Joseph B. Cobb and Jesse Campbell went, Monday, to Luzerne, N. Y., there to join Santell's circus band, the latter an elocutionist.

The entertainment at St. Stephen's chapel, Wednesday evening, was attended by as many as could get tickets, which were necessarily limited. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Gen. Geo. A. Sheridan will deliver, at the town hall, on the evening of June 2, his celebrated eulogy on Gen. Grant. The proceeds will go to Bussel Post, G. A. R.

The sprinkler came out yesterday for the first time in several days. A pipe to supply it with water is being put in at the watering-trough opposite the town hall.

The Addison House has greatly changed in appearance the past week. The outside brick work has been painted white and the woodwork in contrasting colors.

The resident alumni of the college will meet at the office of Messrs. Eldredge & Slade on Monday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock, to make arrangements for the coming commencement. A full attendance is desired.

Monday last business was again brisk in the wool and butter trades. Wool did not come in quite so freely as the week before. A great quantity of butter was bought at 18 cents down.

Isaac Williamson says that 52 years ago this season, while driving stage on the line from here to Castleton, he went over the road between these places three times on runners, either on the 15th or 18th of May.

STATE'S ATTORNEY WILDS.

Hon. Wheeler G. Veazey and Hon. Henry Lane, judges of the county court, met at the Addison House, Tuesday, and appointed Charles M. Wilds, Esq., of this town, State's attorney in place of E. W. J. Hawkins, Esq., of Starksboro, resigned. Judge Wright is visiting friends in Central New York and so could not be present, but he wrote that he would concur in whatever action the others might take. Mr. Wilds' appointment is very generally considered as good as could have been made.

MONDAY'S TOWN MEETING.

About one hundred of the voters of Middlebury met at the basement room of the town hall on Monday afternoon last to consider the matter of improvements and repairs on certain parcels of road which the selectmen had been asked to fix. In the absence of the moderator, Chas. M. Wilds, Dea. D. E. Boyce was chosen, after Clerk M. A. Brooks had called the assemblage to order and read the warning. The petition contained these items:

1st. To see if the town will vote to gravel a parcel of road next to Mrs. Wheeler's, on the highway leading from Middlebury village to Munger street.

2d. To see if the town will vote to stone and gravel a parcel of road near the corner east of E. J. Matthews' place, on the road leading from Middlebury village to D. E. Boyce's place.

3d. To see if the town will vote to stone and gravel a parcel of road near the North Branch road, so that teams with long loads can make the turn without going into the field.

4th. To see if the town will vote to repair the road leading to the Chipman hill next to John Sessions' premises on the Chipman highway.

5th. To see if the town will vote to widen the forks of the road at the place where the North and South branch come together, a few rods east of the bridge in Middlebury.

6th. To see if the town will vote to widen the road at the head in Oxbow Hill on the North Branch road, so that teams with long loads can make the turn without going into the field.
